potch from Mongomery, has just the collisions of the State up to day.

In pict from Mongomery, that section has gone against the proposed Constitution. The vote here and in heavy negro counties give eleventhous at against the Constitution. The vote of the State without the Kentucky Legislature, held at Frankfort.

A caucus of Democratic members of the Kentucky Legislature, held at Frankfort.

There is a rumor in Washington that the President will nominate Mr. Seward has the following special from Moute gometry. Als, of the 8hi:

Rejurns from seventeen counties, among them seven of the heaviest negro counties in the State, show four thousand less than the required one-half Information from North Alabama, where the registered whits large'y outnumber the negroes, report the vote very meager. The white vote, so far as reported, does not aggregate one hundred and fifty in the whole State up to to day. The Constitution is certainly defeated. Efforts are being made to have the polls reopened, but it is understood here, from bigh authority, that it will not be done without orders from Washington to that effort.

The success of the Constitution now mainly depends upon the result in North Alabama. No election has teen heid in some caunties in that section, the loyal voters being frightened off by threats of vengrance of the unregenerated rebels. In these counties Gen. Meade will doubties order a special election and see that the voters are protected. Gen. Meade if Montgomery for Atlanta this morning.
